Report of County Commissioners

---

To the Citizens of Merrimack County:

In accordance with the Public Statutes of the State of New Hampshire, the Commissioners of Merrimack County herewith present the annual report of the County Commissioners, Treasurer, Superintendent of Farm and House of Correction, Clerk of the Superior Court, Sheriff, Jailor, Solicitor, Farm Physician, Chaplain and Auditors for the year ending December 31, 1932.

All those who have had to do with the administration of welfare relief work during the past year will bear witness that it has been a most strenuous one in many ways. More calls have been received and more relief given than for many years, if not in the history of the state. It is unnecessary to say that the unemployment situation is the full cause. While the County Home at Gerrish has been filled to near capacity, it has caused but little concern as compared with the calls for outside relief to the families in the towns and cities of the county.

We once again wish to commend the Superintendent and Matron, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lorden, for the splendid work they are doing in providing comfort and care to those under their charge. We are also not unmindful of the faithful corps of officers associated with them in their work. We would suggest that you refer to the report of the Superintendent for full details of the work done at the farm during the year.

The administration of the law known as the Old Age Assistance Act has now been in force since September 1, 1931. The administration has required much time on the part of the Commissioners and has added a very considerable burden to the taxpayers. From January 1 to December 31, 1932, a total of 133 applications were received; of these 92 were granted, 4 withdrawn, 33 disallowed, and 4 not yet acted upon. Those granted were chargeable under the law as follows:

Merrimack County	8	Loudon	3
Andover	2	Newbury	1
Boscawen	3	New London	2
Bradford	1	Northfield	1
Chichester	1	Pembroke	3
Concord	31	Pittsfield	6
Epsom	2	Salisbury	4
Franklin	10	Warner	3
Henniker	1	Webster	2
Hill	4	Wilmot	1
Hooksett	3

The finances of the county, as will be seen by the Treasurer's report, are in a sound financial condition, notwithstanding the heavy drain that has been made by the necessity of furnishing relief to the large number of unemployed during the past year.

Valuation of real estate and personal property

is placed at	$275,512.04
Cash in Savings Bank	70,000.00
Cash in hands of Treasurer	34,899.07
Short term notes outstanding	98,000.00
No outstanding bonds

In submitting this report we are mindful of all those who have co-operated with us and given so much valuable assistance during these troublesome times. We thank you all.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR H. BRITTON,

JOHN G. McQUILKIN,

JOSEPH G. COLBY,

Commissioners of Merrimack County.

Auditors' Report

---

We hereby certify that we have audited the accounts of the county commissioners, county treasurer, and superintendent of the county farm, from January 1, 1932 to January 1, 1933 and have found the same correctly cast and supported by proper vouchers. We believe that all purchases have been made at reasonable prices and have been used for county purposes.

ENOS K. SAWYER,

To the Auditors:

We hereby certify that the net floating indebtedness of the county on January 1, 1933 to the best of our knowledge and belief, does not exceed five hundred dollars, aside from the amount due cities and towns for the support of County poor and soldiers, for the salaries of the county officers for the last quarter, and October Term of Court.

ARTHUR H. BRITTON,
JOHN G. McQUILKEN,
JOSEPH G. COLBY,

MERRIMACK, ss., February 3, 1933.

Personally appeared Arthur H. Britton, John G. McQuilken and Joseph G. Colby, and made oath to the above statement.

Report of the Chaplain

To the Commissioners of Merrimack County:

At the close of another year it is my privilege to report the work as Chaplain. The twenty services at the farm were held on the first and third Sundays of each month except July and August. The attendance has been good and the spirit excellent. Mr. and Mrs. Lorden take an interest in these services and with their employees and inmates are in attendance whenever possible, and with the members from the House of Correction we have a large audience. The visitations in the two hospitals and in the rooms of the sick have been carried out. The Chaplain has spoken a farewell message over nine of the members during the year. The Salvation Army has held about twenty services, alternating with Chaplain each week.

The leading events have been as follows: On New Year's Day we were favored by an orchestra of six pieces led by Miss Madeline Cusano; a dialogue by Mrs. Evelyn Fairbanks, Mrs. Sylvia James and Mrs. Myrtie Pillsbury; a special feature by Mrs. C. C. Moore and Mrs. Levi P. Fisher; a play by Mr. and Mrs. Hervey Folsom and Everett Gardner. The orchestra played several selections, when ice cream and cake were served to all.

June 14, October 5 and 6 were known as Flower Mission Days, conducted by the Woman's Club of Boscawen, in charge of Mrs. Fred James and Mrs. Daniel Griffin. A large number of bouquets were distributed.

On August 25, Boscawen's Old Home Day's play, entitled "Mr. Easyman's Niece," was taken to the Farm and greatly enjoyed by all who heard it. On October 6, the County Farm entertained the Boscawen W. C. T. U.; an interesting program was carried out. On November 20 a special Thanksgiving service was held, and at this service we had Rev. Charles Davie of Sanbornton Congregational Church with us, who preached an inspiring sermon on "Gratitude." On December 18 preparing the way for Christmas, Rev. Mr. Moore and Mr. Longfellow of Franklin and a group of fourteen other singers sang Xmas carols at the regular service and in the hospitals and to the shut-ins. Christmas was celebrated on Monday, December 26, by a turkey dinner, enjoyed by all. The members of the W. C. T. U. of the county presented to each shut-in a generous box of good things. For nearly two hours a fine program was gladly given by the talented in our near-by towns. Brief remarks were made by the Chaplain and Commissioner Britton. Our Commissioners, Messrs. Britton, McQuilkin and Colby were present, and with their able assistants made quick work of distributing the presents from two heavily laden trees.

Let me quote from a former chaplain's report of 1919 in closing, for I am sure it holds good today. Our county may well be proud of this institution. It is a New Home for more than one hundred worthy people. If cleanliness is next to godliness "this is a most holy place. There is a fine coöperative spirit among all the helpers." Let me repeat it again. "The Superintendent and the Matron are an excellent blend of efficiency, humanity and inspiration."

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL McINTYRE.

Report of the County Solicitor

---

To the Commissioners for the County of Merrimack:

I herewith submit my report as County Solicitor for the year ending December 31, 1932:

At the April, 1932 term, indictments were returned against twenty-five persons for crimes which were not within the jurisdiction of the police courts as distinguished from the Superior Court. These cases and the disposition of them were as follows:

Frank A. Murray and Francis S. Murray, charged with escaping from the State Prison, were each sentenced to serve from two to three years in the State Prison. Charles V. Vivian was indicted for a statutory offense and sentenced to the House of Correction for one year, with the sentence suspended upon payment of costs. Frank S. Presby was convicted of embezzlement and his case was continued for sentence. James Moran was given a suspended sentence to the House of Correction for one year for passing a worthless check. Napoleon Fontaine, Jerry Chaisson and Eugene A. Tuttle were indicted for stealing silver foxes. They are now serving sentences in the State Prison from Belknap County, and upon their release will be sentenced by the Superior Court for Merrimack County. Henry H. Williamson was convicted of several breaks in different parts of the county, and received a sentence of from ten to fifteen years in the State Prison. George Hillsgrove, John R. Ritchie, Charles F. Hillsgrove, Floyd Spellman, Jr., Earl Gould, Richard D. Griffin, Nelson Meader and Roy Wescom were convicted of stealing and each were given suspended sentences to the House of Correction. Wilfred Ouillette was convicted of stealing and sentenced to the State Prison for not less than one year and a day and not more than three years. William E. Lacaillade was indicted for robbery, but he was caught in Belknap County for an offense there and is serving time at the State Prison for the offense committed in that county.

At the October, 1932 term, indictments were returned against twenty-eight persons. These cases and the disposition of them were as follows: Alfred Roberts, charged with larceny, was sentenced to serve six months in the House of Correction, and George Davis, also charged with larceny, was sentenced to one year in the House of Correction. Ernest Woods and Arthur Johnette, charged with escaping from the State Prison, received sentences to the State Prison of from three to four years. Homer Hanscom, Celia Adams Scott, Frank Marino and Doris Trimm were convicted of statutory charges and paid fines and received suspended sentences. Eugene C. Herbert, charged with adultery, was sentenced to serve not less than one year and six months and not more than three years in State Prison. Raymond E. Page, Charles E. Prince, William J. Donovan and Rene J. Vigneault, all of Franklin, were found guilty of stealing, and their cases were continued for sentence. James Rogers, convicted of robbery, was sentenced to serve from three to five years in the State Prison. Harold J. Hanlon, convicted of obtaining money by worthless checks, was given a suspended sentence to the State Prison of from three to five years. William Zeadey, convicted of obtaining property under false pretenses, was sentenced to serve three to five years in the State Prison. Harry Thompson, convicted of stealing, was given a suspended sentence of one year in the House of Correction. Edward Buote, convicted of embezzlement, was sentenced to serve from three to five years in the State Prison. Adam Jasevitch, on a charge of attempted blackmail, was given a suspended sentence of one year in the House of Correction, and Douglas Jackson, charged with embezzlement, received a suspended sentence of six months. Cora A. Reynolds, charged with murder, pleaded not guilty by reason of insanity, and was committed to the State Hospital until released by order of the court.

The increase in the amount of work required of the County Solicitor noted in the 1931 report has continued.

The system inaugurated in 1931, of having a deputy sheriff assigned to the County Solicitor's office for criminal investigations, has been continued with much success. The system is more economic and more efficient. It centralizes criminal investigation work in the county, and, if a similar system were adopted in the rest of the counties, the entire criminal investigation work throughout the State could be done more efficiently. So many of the crimes today are committed by those having automobiles that speed in notifying other communities of the State, and the gathering of exact information immediately are of the utmost importance. If the law enforcement agencies are not co-ordinated, each county does the entire work on any particular case, with the result that the work is spread over a longer period of time and the expenses increase accordingly. The Solicitor reaffirms his belief that the authorization of at least two full-time investigators, working out of the Attorney General's office in co-operation with the county solicitors, as well as the Attorney General, would more than earn their salaries and expenses for the State and the counties.

At the County Solicitor's suggestion, the last Legislature passed a bill creating a jail at the Merrimack County House of Correction, and prisoners bound over to the Superior Court have been confined in the Merrimack County Jail instead of in the Hillsboro County Jail, as they were previously. This method of taking care of prisoners has resulted in a large saving in board and transportation of prisoners. The facilities at the Merrimack County Jail in Boscawen appear to be adequate to take care of the needs, at least for the present.

During the past year, the County Solicitor has inaugurated a system of finger-printing and photographing criminals in the Sheriff's office, and the assistance of central bureaus in Washington and Boston, to which fingerprints and photographs are sent, makes it possible to ascertain the records, if any, of criminals apprehended in this county.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLOUGHBY A. COLBY,
County Solicitor.
